MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, National Photographic Interpretation Center

SUBJECT: Field Reassignment Questionnaire- [REDACTED]

25X1

1. Attached is a Field Reassignment Questionnaire from [REDACTED] which we received belatedly from DDP on 4 February 1970. In it [REDACTED] states his preferences for assignment on return to Washington as follows: first choice NPIC, second COMIREX, third Co-op Education Program.

25X1

2. As indicated on the routing sheets covering the FRQ, I requested the DDI Admin Staff to explore the possibility of an assignment for [REDACTED] in either his second or third choices, and on 9 February DDI Admin reported that they had had no success. In addition, based on verbal expressions of interest by [REDACTED] some time back, I had already requested [REDACTED] to contact the Office of Training and the Office of Personnel relative to an assignment for [REDACTED] within their components, and [REDACTED] had reported a negative reply from each.

25X1

3. Since [REDACTED] first choice is for an assignment within your organization, and taking into account that we know of no other possibility within the Agency, it is my responsibility as head of his Career Service to request you formally to consider an assignment for him within NPIC.

The DD/I Admin Staff was extremely upset over the long delay in receiving [Redacted]

[Redacted] FRQ and a personal visit was made to the Support Staff, EUR, to explain the embarrassment resulting from their holding this document. As you requested, we will follow this up with a formal complaint.

We have explored the possibility of [Redacted] assignment to COMIREX and the Co-op Education Staff and determined that there are no vacancies in either place.

NPIC and/or COMINTEX would provide work closely allied to Agency experience. Many years as Chief of USN Photo Interpretation School; work as graduate assistant during college; active recruiting and training of personnel during buildup of IAS and NPIC from 1954 to 1968; and interest in young people make work with the Co-op Education program very enticing.
